

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Do you offer a trial before enrolling?

Yes - every student can have a free trial class. Not only does it help them decide if dance is for them, but it also enables the teacher to make an informed decision as to whether or not the class is at a suitable level / age for your child.

What should my child wear for their free trial class?

All details relating to our uniform can be found here:

<https://www.letsdanceacademy.co.uk/uniform-2nd-hand>

Please wear something as close to our uniform as possible for the trial. ie: A tight top and skirt for Ballet. Once you are happy that your child is settled and keen to carry on with their classes then we ask that they conform to our uniform requirements. You can purchase uniform from our uniform or online shop. We also offer an extensive 2nd hand service for shoes and clothing, both to buy and sell.

Can I watch classes?

I'm afraid that due to COVID restrictions – parents are unable to enter our venues at present. We also ask that parents do not congregate at entrances and exits, so parents are unable to watch classes during this time.

What happens once my child is happy in a class?

Then you will now be enrolled with us, all details needed should have already been emailed to you.

Payment:

Once you have enrolled your child, you will receive an invoice with all payment information on (usually accessible via your customer portal) Fees are payable on a termly basis (10 weeks) and are invoiced to all parents before the start of term with details of the payment due and the final date for payment.

Termly rates will be adjusted if your child enrolls after the start of term.

Please note: Any late payments are subject to a 10% surcharge.

Developing through the school:

Let's Dance Academy runs an extensive timetable which is designed to support and develop your child through whichever dance path they decide to take. Whether it's one class a week or 12 classes, we will always be here as a team to support and encourage your child. Let's Dance Academy prides itself in a welcoming, family feel throughout the school.

If you have any questions at all, please do not hesitate to ask.
